Introduction

Dyslexia Action CPD courses are designed to strengthen the expertise and confidence of teachers, teaching assistants and support tutors in order to ensure the progress and achievement of children/adults with literacy difficulties and special educational needs. CPD courses allow professionals to develop and enhance their current skills and understanding. Whilst studying Dyslexia Action CPD courses, participants will question what currently takes place in their learning environment and will learn new theories and strategies. They will learn from fellow professionals and will share their experiences and discuss issues via the course forums. Our Level 4 and 5 unit and awards courses are mapped to level descriptors¹ and build towards qualifications. They are not awareness courses. Participants must complete the assignments and cannot be given access as 'read only' courses.

Explanation of Terms

APEL – Accreditation of Prior Experience and Learning

Candidate – The person undertaking an award or unit qualification

CPD – Continuing Professional Development

Hours of Learning Time - This includes all the learning activities that are required to achieve the learning outcomes. Hours of Learning Time includes: preparation before the course begins such as induction activities; familiarisation with the course outline and recommended reading; participation in online activities such as forums and group activities and private study and assessment activities both during and after the course ends.

Learner – The pupil / student that the course participant does any practical work with

Participant – The person who is studying on a course

Level 5 Diploma in Specialist Teaching for Literacy-Related Difficulties (DIST)

There are two available routes to completing the Level 5 Diploma. They each have their own entry requirements.

The Standard Route is a direct entry route to the programme. It is only available for graduates and takes one calendar year to complete. NB: Foundation degrees do not meet the entry requirements of this course. There is an application process in which applicants are required to set out their reasons for study and their suitability for undertaking this rigorous professional training programme.

The CPD Certificate route is an indirect entry route to the programme. This is a Level 4/5 study pathway suitable for non-graduates and graduates. This is a pathway that allows relevant APEL to be acquired during the study of CPD units to enable application for the DIST. Studying this pathway does not therefore necessarily guarantee entry onto the DIST at the DIST2 (Part 2) juncture. There is an application process in which applicants are required to set out their reasons for study and their suitability for undertaking this rigorous professional training programme.

Private tutors please see the guidance below.

Who is the diploma designed for?

The Level 5 Diploma is a comprehensive programme which trains teachers, teaching assistants and support tutors to become qualified specialist teachers and practitioners. The programme is suitable for those working with children or adults and those who are overseas. Please note, that as the components of the diploma pathway form part of a cumulative professional qualification pathway, the units of study within it cannot be retaken if failed. The Level 5 Diploma course is designed to:

- Provide participants with the technical knowledge and skills needed to put into practice the theoretical understanding gained from prior study
- Provide the technical knowledge necessary to foster language awareness in learners with literacy difficulties (including dyslexia)
- Give an in-depth understanding of the rationale for some tried and tested resources
- Explain the placement process to provide participants with the necessary background knowledge and skills to place learners at the correct stage of an intervention programme by identifying areas of performance that require support
- Provide advice and practice in structured lesson planning to ensure that participants learn to apply the principles of structured, sequential, cumulative multisensory tuition during the practical teaching intervention programme
- Give successful participants the knowledge and skills to place learners on, and deliver, an appropriately individualised, structured, cumulative multisensory literacy programme
- Give successful participants the knowledge and skills to begin to advise non-specialist literacy staff within their educational establishment on the strategic support of literacy difficulties.

Suitability of the Diploma for Aspiring Teacher-Assessors

The Level 5 Diploma is only for those who are primarily interested in literacy teaching as an end in itself. The course is too specialised, detailed and demanding for practitioners whose main focus is literacy assessment. The diploma is therefore not appropriate as a mere stepping stone to gain an Assessment Practising Certificate \(APC\).

Suitability of the Diploma for Already Qualified Specialist Teachers

The Level 5 Diploma in Specialist Teaching for Literacy-Related Difficulties can also be undertaken by qualified specialist teachers with a Level 5 or Level 7 specialist teaching qualification recognised by Dyslexia Action as equivalent to our own, who wish to gain an introduction and practical experience of the Dyslexia Action Literacy Programme. However, important conditions apply. Please see the External APEL section below for further details.

Suitability of the Diploma for Qualified Private Tutors

Private tutoring will partly count as recent and relevant experience and if you hold QTS/PGCE this will strengthen your application.

Recent experience of working in a school/college is essential: If you are not currently school/college-based you will need to demonstrate that you are willing and able to work within an educational setting as part of your professional role. You will need to list a role within a school/college setting on your application i.e., you must find such a role before applying. This role can be voluntary; it does not have to be a teaching or paid role and can be, for example, listening to readers for at least 3 hours a week in a school setting. Please note: a role within a home-setting is not appropriate for safe-guarding reasons.

If you do not have any recent or substantial experience of working in school/college, you will need to show that you have found a placement for the teaching practice Module-02 BEFORE you apply

Level 5 Diploma – Standard Route

This route is only available for graduates and takes one calendar year to complete. Applicants must have at least two-to-three years recent and relevant teaching or learning support experience in a dyslexia/literacy support setting. Applications are considered during a review process. Only applicants who have suitable professional experience, the required qualifications and the necessary interest in learning in-depth about literacy teaching will be considered.

There are three parts to the diploma; the individual components are not available to book separately. Each component must be passed in order to progress to the next part of the course. Participants are given only one chance to resubmit an assignment that has not passed on first submission.

Please note: as this is a professional qualification pathway, no unit of study can be retaken. If the resubmitted work is not of passing standard, the participant is deemed to have failed the unit of study and cannot progress to the next stage of the diploma.

The Dyslexia Action CPD Certificate Pathway

NB: The CPD Pathway Certificate gained is equivalent to the DIST1 unit of study for APEL purposes. This is a Level 4/5 study pathway suitable for non-graduates and graduates. Applicants for this route must have at least two-to-three years recent and relevant teaching or learning support experience in a dyslexia/literacy support setting.

Please note: It takes approximately 18 months to two years of study to complete the diploma via this route². In this pathway the Level 5 Diploma participants do not enrol directly for the diploma; instead, they enrol initially for one of three possible certificate pathway routes. Each of the following certificate pathways is made up of two awards, each comprising three units. Participants can choose from one of three possible certificate pathways below, depending on their work setting. Either:

1. The Literacy CPD Programme Pathway (DACRT51) for teachers and teaching assistants working in Great Britain (primary/secondary) further details or
2. The International CPD Programme Pathway (DACRT67) for teachers and teaching assistants working overseas (primary/secondary) further details or
3. The Supporting Adults CPD Programme Pathway (DACRT56) for tutors/training staff/those in FE/HE working with adults (16 plus) and those working with adults overseas further details.

Please see the tables on the next page for details of the pathway programmes available. Full details of the separate units within the awards can be found on our website. NB: If you wish to study DACPD99 (Numeracy and Dyscalculia) instead of one of the units within DAAWD51, DAAWD67 or DAAWD56 please contact cpdmail@dyslexiaaction.org.uk for further information.

² Applicants may accelerate the pathway only by studying more than one CPD unit at a time within the pathway only (upon successful completion of the first unit) within the first two awards. No more than 3 CPD units can be studied at the same time.

Progression onto the Level 5 Diploma: The Application Process

Progress onto the Level 5 Diploma is not certain after successful completion of the CPD Certificate Pathway. Applications are considered during a review process.

- Only applicants who have suitable professional experience, the required qualifications and have demonstrated the necessary interest in learning in depth about literacy teaching will be considered. NB: The CPD Pathway Certificate gained is equivalent to the DIST1 unit of study for APEL purposes. Successful applicants join the diploma at the beginning of DIST Part 2 and are expected to proceed to DIST Part 3 to complete the full diploma. Part 2 of the diploma (DIST Part 2) must be passed in order to progress to DIST Part 3
- The expectation is that participants apply to join the DIST2 unit of study immediately after completion of the CPD Pathway route³. We will endeavour to allocate places to all that apply at each entry point, but some participants may be put on a waiting list if tutor places are not available immediately
- Participants are given only one chance to resubmit an assignment that has not passed on first submission. Please note: as this is a professional qualification pathway, no unit of study can be retaken. If the resubmitted work is not of passing standard, the participant is deemed to have failed the unit of study and cannot progress to the next stage.

Diploma in Specialist Teaching for Literacy-related Difficulties (CPD Certificate Pathway Route)
One of the following CPD certificate courses must be completed and is accepted (after application process) as APEL for DIST Part 1:		TQT	Credits
DACRT51: Level 4 CPD Cert. in Supporting Literacy in Learners with Dyslexia, OR: DACRT67: Level 4 CPD Cert. in Supporting International Learners with Dyslexia, OR: DACRT56: Level 5 CPD Cert. in Supporting Adults with Dyslexia and Co-occurring Difficulties		n/a	APEL
In addition, both the following units must be successfully completed to gain the full diploma qualification:
DIST Part 2	Foundations for Building Structured Literacy Teaching Interventions	230	23
DIST Part 3	Extending Specialist Literacy Teaching Skills	130	13
Total for Diploma depending on pathway chosen		480	48
Notes:	TQT = Total Qualification Time

³ You must apply within two years of completing your final pathway unit. Participants who do not register and commence studies on DIST2 within two years of completion of the necessary CPD awards will no longer be eligible to apply for entry to the DIST programme at the DIST2 entry point. Such participants would have the option to apply for the whole diploma from the beginning, if they meet the entry criteria.

External APEL Applicants: Already Qualified Specialist Teachers

Practitioners who are already qualified specialist teachers can apply for the diploma. Potential applicants with a previous specialist teaching qualification recognised by us will (depending upon the quality of the application) be offered one of two possible entry pathways:

- a. Entry to DIST Part 2. Direct entry to DIST Part 2 depends upon the recognition status of the previous qualifications gained by an Accreditation of Prior Learning (APEL) process as equivalent to the general theory on literacy learning unit of study (DIST Part 1) at the time of application to the course. If the qualification is more than five years old an additional CPD log will be required as evidence
- b. Entry to the Standard Route of the diploma. We reserve the right to require entry onto the full diploma if general theory knowledge in the previous qualification is not recognised as being current and other CPD log evidence is not available or not recognised as sufficient for APEL purposes.

List of Specialist Teaching Qualifications Recognised by Dyslexia Action for APEL Purposes

- Dyslexia Action Professional/Postgraduate Certificates (University of York)
- Dyslexia Action Diploma qualifications in Dyslexia and Literacy (University of York)
- Dyslexia Institute Postgraduate Certificate or Diploma qualifications
- Hornsby Postgraduate Diploma in Specialist Teaching

Exit Awards

The expected exit qualification is the same for participants from each of the potential application categories (Standard Diploma, CPD Certificate Pathway APEL and external APEL):

- Candidates successfully completing Parts 1, 2 and 3 of the Standard Diploma Route exit with the Diploma in Specialist Teaching for Literacy-Related Difficulties
- Candidates successfully completing a CPD Pathway Certificate (DACRT51, 67 or 56) and DIST Part 2 and Part 3 of the diploma exit with the Diploma in Specialist Teaching for Literacy-Related Difficulties
- Candidates entering the programme at DIST Part 2 with external APEL that successfully complete DIST Part 2 and DIST Part 3 of the diploma exit with the Diploma in Specialist Teaching for Literacy-Related Difficulties

Rarely, there may be reasons why progression through the three parts of the diploma is not possible for participants. There are early exit awards in such cases:

- Candidates successfully completing DIST Part 1 of the Standard Diploma Route can exit with the Understanding Literacy Difficulties Award
- Candidates successfully completing DIST Parts 1 and 2 of the Standard Diploma Route can exit with:
 - Understanding Literacy Difficulties Award and
 - The Certificate in Support for Literacy-difficulties
- Candidates successfully completing a CPD Pathway Certificate (DACRT51, 67 or 56) and Part 2 of the diploma can exit with the Certificate in Support for Literacy-difficulties
- External APEL candidates entering at DIST Part 2 and successfully completing Part 2 of the diploma can exit with the Certificate in Support for Literacy-difficulties

Expectations of Participants

This diploma is a challenging professional qualification pathway and it should not be undertaken lightly. Not all participants who undertake the diploma pass it – gaining the diploma depends upon participants showing an ability to perform the role of a specialist literacy teacher. It is therefore expected that participants are willing and able to devote quality study time⁴ to the course and that they are ready for the intensity of study when they join.

DIST Part 1 requires 13 notional hours of self-study per week. DIST Part 2 requires 13 notional hours of study per week. Participants are expected to work through the many specially devised materials to acquire a theoretical understanding of the Dyslexia Action Literacy Programme \(DALP\) and then begin to apply the principles of specialist literacy provision under supervision. In the early, theoretical section of the unit of study, tutors are available on the forums to give advice and respond to queries from participants.

There is no one-to-one tutorial or meeting provision within the early theoretical section of the unit of study: participants gain their knowledge base through readings, structured exercises and the study of case study materials. In the middle section of the second unit of study (DIST2), participants conduct the placement process with a learner. On handing in these findings, participants are allocated a one-to-one Dyslexia Action DALP tutor to supervise them in the practical teaching element of the diploma. Practical teaching is an essential part of the diploma course.

Candidates are required to submit evidence of teaching practice throughout their teaching practicum. Film recordings of teaching practice are made with the appropriate permissions from the school, learners and parents and within the terms of The Data Protection Act (2018). Recordings are usually submitted using a file upload facility - specific directions are available with the course handbooks.

The Specialist Teaching Programme

Participants on the teaching course use the Dyslexia Action Literacy Programme \(DALP\). This specialist literacy training programme has been developed by the postgraduate tutor team at Dyslexia Action in response to the need for a programme that, through individual placement identification, provides a flexible pathway to accommodate each learner's literacy profile. DALP builds upon previous works in the United States of America by Orton, Gillingham, Stillman and Cox, as well as the British programmes initially developed by Hickey and the team at the Dyslexia Institute - e.g., the Dyslexia Institute Literacy Programme (DILP). The dynamic learning pathways that can be generated by practitioners who are trained to use DALP, contribute to its power as a teacher training tool and teaching intervention programme. The separate dimensions of DALP also make it a challenging tool to master – great dedication and self-study is required to gain competence in its use.

⁴ It is not possible for participants to study this course solely during release time during the working school day. Dedicated study time must be set aside in blocks to enable the theoretical content and tutor feedback to be assimilated and applied.

Learning Outcomes

DIST Part 1: Understanding Literacy Difficulties

Level: 5	Total Qualification Time: 120	Credits: 12	Duration: 10 weeks (approx.)
-----------------	--------------------------------------	--------------------	-------------------------------------

This introductory study unit provides a grounding in the key theoretical perspectives and constructs required to gain a firm understanding of how literacy-related difficulties arise and are perpetuated. It is designed to give graduate participants the opportunity to acquire a grounding in the sources of literacy difficulties. There is tutor support, but study is expected independently with the tutor providing a monitoring role. DIST Part 1 is not required for entrants who have followed the CPD Certificate Pathway Route.

Learning Outcomes

Participants will be able to:

1. Discuss a range of factors that can influence literacy acquisition and progression.
2. Demonstrate a sound grasp of the key concepts and terminology necessary to promote progress in learners with delayed literacy development.
3. Demonstrate understanding of the range of factors to consider when supporting learners with decoding and reading comprehension difficulties.
4. Demonstrate understanding of the range of factors to consider when supporting learners with spelling and written expression difficulties.

DIST Part 2: Foundations for Building Structured Literacy Teaching Interventions

Level: 5	Total Qualification Time: 230	Credits: 23	Duration⁵: 18 weeks (approx.)

The second diploma unit of study raises awareness of the key elements and rationale of effective literacy intervention practice using the Dyslexia Action Literacy Programme \(DALP\) as an example. The analysis of the different strands of DALP will enable participants to appreciate the range of factors to consider when planning strategic, structured support for learners with dyslexia and literacy-related difficulties. Participants analyse placement data in order to develop the necessary knowledge and skills to ascertain a learner's ideal entry point on the Dyslexia Action Literacy Programme \(DALP\). A short series of specialist literacy sessions are delivered online under the supervision of our experienced Dyslexia Action specialist literacy teacher(s), to give practitioners preliminary experience in the delivery of tailored learning resources for a specific learner.

Learning Outcomes

Participants will be able to:

1. Demonstrate understanding of the essential components of a structured literacy intervention programme.
2. Employ a placement process to gather evidence upon which to base a literacy intervention programme.
3. Demonstrate understanding of the range of factors to consider when designating an entry point for a learner in a structured literacy intervention programme.
4. Deliver a short series of structured, cumulative multisensory teaching sessions under the supervision of a qualified specialist literacy teacher.

DIST Part 3: Extending Specialist Literacy Teaching Skills

Level: 5	Total Qualification Time: 130	Credits: 13	Duration⁶: 13 weeks (approx.)

The final diploma unit of study is designed to enable the practitioner to gain the necessary experience to independently plan and deliver a series of structured literacy lessons to a learner. Participants will put their knowledge of the Dyslexia Action Literacy Programme \(DALP\) gained from the previous units of study into practice by taking the lead in the lesson planning process. A range of additional activities is undertaken to enable the participant to develop a varied portfolio of strategic teaching support skills.

⁵ This will vary depending upon where school/college holidays fall in the teaching calendar.

⁶ This will vary depending upon where school/college holidays fall in the teaching calendar and the number of sessions selected for the practicum.

Learning Outcomes

Participants will be able to:

1. Independently prepare a series of structured, cumulative multisensory teaching sessions for a learner with literacy difficulties based upon the findings of a placement process.
2. Effectively conduct a teaching intervention with a learner with literacy difficulties based on a structured literacy intervention programme.
3. Discuss how the essential components of a structured, sequential, cumulative multisensory lesson combined with higher-order skills tasks support multi-dimensional literacy development.
4. Critically reflect upon the effectiveness of own teaching sessions and the resources used within them.

Demands of DIST Parts 2 and 3

Each of the parts of the diploma is demanding and intensive. Each part of the course is designated a number of notional study hours per week, 'notional' meaning the time that the average participant would need to spend to complete all studies, formative and summative tasks. This includes the time needed for planning and delivering the teaching intervention programme. This means that it may take some participants longer than the stated hours per week to gain the maximum professional development opportunities that the course affords.

As noted earlier, tutors give guidance via forums and written feedback, but it is participants' responsibility to work through the course materials in order to gain professional understanding. The DALP tutors are there to advise participants and support the growth of self-initiated professional understanding and the development of competence in specialist literacy teaching. They are not provided to intensively coach participants until participants gain competence.

How will I be assessed?

Assignments include reflective tasks, compulsory forums, conducting and reflecting upon your own performance in lesson delivery, etc. Many quizzes feature in the units, as a means of self-checking knowledge and directing participants to key pieces of information within the course materials. Undertaking the quizzes should be seen as the means to an end, not as an end in itself. The end being the development of essential underpinning knowledge.

Teaching Practice: Working with a Learner

The learner selected for the teaching intervention programme must be available for the duration of the teaching practice (around 14 school/college weeks). If the learner is going to be away for more than a week during the teaching practice, she/he may not be suitable for this intervention, similarly learners taking examinations may not have the time or focus to fully engage. Tutors will advise on the suitability of chosen learners, based on the information provided, but it is the responsibility of participants to find and select suitable learners. Lessons must take place as face-to-face sessions; no on-line version of the diploma is currently offered.

Please note:

- Participants working with children can only teach a learner within a DfE registered state or independent school with a Unique Reference Number (URN). See: get-information-schools.service.gov.uk/Search for details of how to find details of schools and schools' URNs (this does not apply to those based overseas, although the school or college should be a registered organisation through the state authority)
- Participants should be covered by the school DBS check and safeguarding arrangements (this does not apply to those based overseas, although the school or college should be a registered organisation through the state authority)

- For safeguarding reasons, participants cannot teach a learner in the participant's own home or in the learner's family home: this is not permitted
- For reasons of academic and professional integrity, participants cannot teach a family member or close family friend for the teaching intervention programme
- Participants will be expected to select a learner whose age range is equivalent to the age range of learners they are working with at the time of making their application to the course with Dyslexia Action
- Learning sessions must be conducted face-to-face not over the internet.

The criteria for selection of a learner for the teaching intervention programme are:

- The learner should have a minimum age of seven⁷
- The learner should be currently underachieving in literacy (it is not a criterion that the learner has a diagnosis of dyslexia)
- The learner must not have a complex learning profile or social/ behavioural problems that will present challenges for the participant in training
- The learner can hold age-appropriate conversations in English and has been educated in a mainly English-speaking environment. English must be the language the learners predominantly use in school to access the curriculum. Learners who are struggling with English as an additional language are not suitable for the practical elements of the courses. All lessons within the teaching intervention programme must be delivered in English
- The learner should not be taking important exams during this period.

Required Teaching Practice Hours

Dyslexia Action requires you to undertake a minimum of 20 hours of teaching support during the teaching practice. At least 10 hours of teaching support should be done with one learner individually (not in a group setting). The remaining hours can be carried out with either the same learner or another learner (or a small group of learners). Lessons normally take place on a weekly basis allowing lesson plans to be developed, resources to be prepared and tutor feedback given. Individual lessons can be scheduled for one hour or one-and-a-half hours with the learner (as appropriate for the age and profile of the learner). Successful completion of these teaching hours and other study-related tasks will enable participants to apply for Associate Membership (ADG) of The Dyslexia Guild and membership of other professional bodies (e.g., PATOSS and the British Dyslexia Association).

Will I need to have a DBS check?

As a Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) Enhanced Disclosure is a requirement for those working regularly with children and young people⁸, the person you choose to use for any practical teaching should normally be someone within your school or workplace, where you will already have a DBS Enhanced Disclosure. If you do not currently have a DBS check then this will need to be organised with the educational establishment in which your potential learner is schooled. The DBS must be in place before any face-to-face work with a learner. Please visit: gov.uk/disclosure-barring-service-check for further information.

We reserve the right to request this information from you or to terminate a programme where we feel it is not in the interests of the learner to continue. Dyslexia Action Training and Professional Development will not assume responsibility nor will accept liability incurred as a result of any participant or learner being engaged in this programme.

⁷ If you regularly work with children younger than this it may be possible to work with a younger child, but the deciding factor is whether the child's profile will enable you to gain sufficient experience of the application of DALP during your training with us. It may be the case if a younger child is taught that additional exercises may need to be undertaken to demonstrate competence for the purposes of the course.

⁸ And with adult learners who are categorised as vulnerable.

Extension and Deferral Process

The diploma is an integrated study programme, which contains a tutor-supervised practical element. It is therefore expected that participants register for the diploma and work through without any unscheduled breaks. Short extensions to the summative deadline date are given in DIST Part 1. In DIST Parts 2 and 3 a teaching calendar schedules a completion pathway and it is expected that participants complete this practical part of the course without an extension, using the leeway built into the teaching calendar. Dyslexia Action reserves the right to levy an additional tutor support fee in cases where participants do not complete the course by the final teaching calendar deadline, if one-to-one tutor support is still required.

For participants who have unforeseen mitigating circumstances there is a deferral system. Please refer to the course handbook for further information.

Application Information

Hardware and Software Requirements

Minimum Hardware and Software Requirements

- Windows/Apple (with 'Pages' app or 'Word' free software). We do not support smartphones or tablets or very old Mac/pc machines
- High Speed Internet connection
- Google Chrome or Mozilla Firefox (Internet Explorer is not supported)
- Microsoft Office/Open Office/Google Docs
- Adobe Acrobat Reader/Foxit Reader/VLC Media Player.

Internet connection

For the purpose of viewing online videos, broadband connection with a liberal bandwidth usage policy (5GB) is highly advisable. The basic course content can also be accessed via mobile broadband or even dial-up using smart phones and tablets, but the learning experience will likely be diminished and some video/audio content may not be accessible.

Email Account

There are two conditions that must be met by all participants on the programme. The application process or study pathway may be suspended until these conditions are met:

1. Email addresses used to register for Dyslexia Action courses must match the name you are enrolling under on that course. This is insisted upon to support effective tracking of those registering and studying with us. This also helps ensure that professionally appropriate emails are used in the practical modules/units where contact with learners' parents, schools and other external bodies is necessary
2. You must have your own personal email account or individual work email account. Shared or family email addresses contravene GDPR guidelines and are not suitable for course correspondence. We recommend using Google Mail (Gmail) as this email also gives free access to Google Drive storage.

Junk/spam Filters

Despite all precautions, important emails to you from Dyslexia Action might be filtered as junk/spam. To avoid this problem please add cpdmail@dyslexiaaction.org.uk , dalpmail@dyslexiaaction.org.uk and moodlesupport@dyslexiaaction.org.uk to your contact list.

Pre-reading for DIST

There is no pre-reading required. We do however suggest you join The Dyslexia Guild which provides a wide range of benefits to members and gives you free access to online resources to continue your professional development. Contact: dyslexiaguild.org.uk

Course Registration for Level 5 Diploma (Standard Route)

Intakes for the diploma are available three times a year: in January, April and September. We welcome suitably qualified applicants who have a predominant interest in learning about specialist literacy techniques and are therefore designed for literacy practitioners who can commit to studying aspects of linguistics, phonetics and morphology in some depth. This intensive study pathway in literacy teaching is not suitable for practitioners who do not have a deep professional interest in literacy teaching. Click here for further details about the Standard Diploma Route and how to book online.

Course Registration for Level 5 Diploma (CPD Certificate Pathway Route)

We welcome suitably qualified applicants who have a predominant interest in learning about specialist literacy techniques and are therefore designed for literacy practitioners who can commit to studying aspects of linguistics, phonetics and morphology in some depth. This intensive study pathway in literacy teaching is not suitable for practitioners who do not have a deep professional interest in literacy teaching. There are three intakes onto the diploma a year: in March, June and November. There are a set number of places allocated per intake. These are allocated on a 'first-come-first-served' basis, so early registration is advised. If applications exceed the number of allocated places on a particular cohort participants may have to wait until the next cohort to join. For further details about the CPD Certificate Pathway Route registration please contact trainingcourses@dyslexiaaction.org.uk

Dyslexia Action Training and Professional Development reserves the right to change course start dates and/or schedules and the right to cancel any programme where candidate numbers are insufficient to warrant the course taking place. In this case candidates will be offered places on alternative programmes or a full refund of fees will be available.

Course Fees

There are two ways of making payment for the diploma units of study – either by paying an upfront, one-off sum, or paying by instalments. There are different fees depending upon the pathway you are following.

Please note: Payment terms are 30 days from receipt of invoice, or immediately if the course starts in less than 30 days. Places are in high demand and we cannot hold places for participants who do not meet the payment schedule.

All payments must be made in Pounds Sterling (GBP) – payment schedules are set out above. Please refer to Terms and Conditions for payment terms. VAT is applicable on all courses. If you choose to pay later by cheque or bank transfer an invoice will be raised with an additional fee of £30 inclusive of VAT. All fees are subject to an annual increase.

Other Important Information

Accreditation

Dyslexia Action courses have been in existence for 50 years and have a nationally respected profile in specialist teacher training and support. Our courses meet a number of accreditation criteria reflecting the importance we place on the quality of our courses and high standards of teaching and learning which are intrinsic to our programmes.

The Dyslexia Guild: The Level 5 Diploma in Strategic Teaching Support confers eligibility for Associate Membership (ADG) of The Dyslexia Guild, recognised as the first grade of professional membership for a specialist literacy teacher/practitioner.

British Dyslexia Association: The Level 5 Diploma is subject to accreditation by the British Dyslexia Association (BDA) and confers eligibility for Approved Teacher Status (ATS or ATS FE/HE) or Approved Practitioner Status (APS), equivalent to Associate Member ADG with the Guild. Note on B.D.A. Accreditation - The course for which you are applying is accredited by the B.D.A. This means that if you successfully complete all elements of that course, you can then apply for the appropriate B.D.A. award. See: bdadyslexia.org.uk/services/professional-accreditation. ‘Accreditation’ means that the course has been evaluated by a Liaison Team (LT) from the B.D.A. Accreditation Board and found to meet all the criteria for that award. These criteria can be found on the B.D.A. web site at: bdadyslexia.org.uk/services/professional-accreditation. If you have any concerns about the content or assessment of the course, with regard to compliance with the B.D.A. course Accreditation criteria, you can contact the B.D.A. at: accreditation@bdadyslexia.org.uk. However, the B.D.A. can take no responsibility for the delivery of the course, e.g., inter alia, its tutors, facilities, registration, fees, continuance, etc. These are entirely a matter for the course provider. It is your responsibility before registering for the course to satisfy yourself that these are acceptable and meet your needs. If you have any concerns regarding these matters, you should, in the first instance, contact the Course Leader and if this does not produce a satisfactory result a representative of the Course Provider.

The CPD Standards Office: All of our Level 4/5 CPD-brand courses are individually accredited by the CPD Standards Office. This diploma is currently accredited by the CPD Standards Office.

Certification

Dyslexia Action Certificate and Transcript

Candidates who have successfully completed all three parts of the Standard Diploma Route will be issued with a qualification certificate (Level 5 Diploma in Specialist Teaching for Literacy-Related Difficulties) and a transcript.

Candidates who have successfully completed a Dyslexia Action CPD Certificate and DIST Part 2 and DIST Part 3 will qualify for the Level 5 Diploma in Specialist Teaching for Literacy-Related Difficulties. A certificate and transcript will be issued.

Participants with a Disability

A person is said to have a disability under the Equality Act 2010 if he or she has a physical or mental impairment that has a 'substantial' and 'long-term' negative effect on his or her ability to do normal daily activities.

A disability can arise from a wide range of impairments which can be:

- Sensory impairments, such as those affecting sight or hearing
- Impairments with fluctuating or recurring effects such as rheumatoid arthritis, myalgic encephalitis (ME), chronic fatigue syndrome (CFS), fibromyalgia, depression and epilepsy
- Progressive, such as motor neurone disease, muscular dystrophy, and forms of dementia;
- Auto-immune conditions such as systemic lupus erythematosus (SLE)
- Organ specific, including respiratory conditions such as asthma, and cardiovascular diseases, including thrombosis, stroke and heart disease
- Developmental, such as autistic spectrum disorders (ASD), dyslexia and dyspraxia
- Learning disabilities
- Mental health conditions with symptoms such as anxiety, low mood, panic attacks, phobias, or unshared perceptions; eating disorders; bipolar affective disorders; obsessive compulsive disorders; personality disorders; post-traumatic stress disorder, and some self-harming behaviour
- Mental illnesses, such as depression and schizophrenia
- Produced by injury to the body, including to the brain

In cases where someone is the sole carer for a person with a long-term illness or a disability then that person is, under The Equality Act, afforded the same rights and access to reasonable adjustments that the long-term unwell/disabled person would be. See: gov.uk/definition-of-disability-under-equality-act-2010

The online training provided by Dyslexia Action has an inbuilt flexibility and this enables many participants with disabilities to work without any reasonable adjustments. However, we can be responsive to individual requirements within practical limits. If you have a disability, we would encourage you to disclose this at the time of application so that we can put in place any support required at an early stage. Our disclosure (DISC) form is sent to any candidate who indicates that they have a disability on our registration form. On the disclosure form you are asked to detail the nature of your disability and to indicate whether you would like a one-week extension on all units/courses you study with Dyslexia Action.

If we have permission for us to disclose, this information will be shared with the Disabilities team, any tutors you work directly with and the tutor in charge of marking. Any agreed reasonable adjustments will be noted on a form and this form will be sent to you for your records. Participants with a disability can discuss their individual requirements with the Disabilities Advisor. The Disabilities Administrator should be contacted in the first instance at: cpd@dyslexiaaction.org.uk

Progression after the Diploma

Once you have successfully completed and passed the Diploma in Specialist Teaching for Literacy-Related Difficulties you will be a qualified specialist teacher (for those with Qualified Teacher Status - QTS) or qualified specialist practitioner (for those without QTS).

You may be interested in training to become a specialist teacher/practitioner-assessor, the current suggested route available is via our sister company Real Training and is as follows:

Certificate of Competence in Educational Testing \(CCET\) or Certificate in Psychometric Testing, Assessment and Access Arrangements \(CPT3A\) (please check eligibility criteria with Real Training) and current registration with the British Psychological Society Register of Qualifications in Test Use (BPS RQTU) as Test User.

Dyslexia – Professional Report Writing (please check eligibility criteria).

Dyslexia Action also has a Postgraduate Certificate in Specialist Assessment for Literacy-Related Difficulties. For further details please visit: dyslexiaaction.org.uk/training-to-become-a-specialist-spld-assessor/

Dyslexia Guild Membership

All course participants are strongly encouraged to become members of The Dyslexia Guild, a membership body which welcomes all individuals with a professional interest in dyslexia and specific learning difficulties (SpLD).

Who can join?

Dyslexia/SpLD specialist teachers and assessors, teaching assistants, SENCOs, learning support staff and tutors from further and higher education, speech and language therapists, psychologists and librarians. The Guild maintains the National Training and Resource Centre for Dyslexia and SpLD and provides a wide range of benefits to members. These include online resources, a vibrant and topical journal – The Dyslexia Review, as well as an e-newsletter. Guild members are able to renew their Assessment Practising Certificate through the association and meet annually to network at the Summer Conference.
